F Freedom came with a price, the price of Christ's blood shed on the Cross
O Our Lord and Savior saved us all from our sins.
U Unrighteous we may be, but God set us free by grace.
R Rely on God, He will show our paths.
T The truth is in God's Word, the Bible, His Holy Book.
H Helping one another along the way.

J Jesus dies for our sins.
U United, one day, we believers will be in heaven.
L Love one another as Christ loved us.
Y You are a unique creation made from God, our Heavenly Father.

*Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

Two people read the same Bible.

One sees reasons to love.....The other reasons to hate.
One sees unity.....The other division.
One finds prejudice.....The other equality.
One discovers compassion.....The other is indifference.
One goodwill.....The other malice.
Two people, one book.....One book, two views.
The book is a mirror.....The reflection is you.

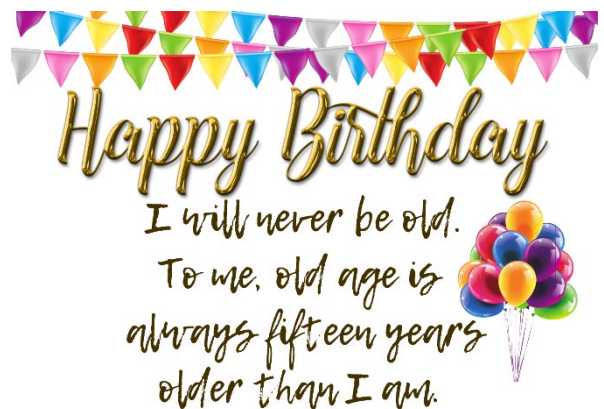

The church was not meant to entertain people. It exists to train disciples, glorify GOD, and reach the lost!

Fourth of July PRAYER

*Heavenly Father,
We thank you for this Nation.
We thank you for the freedom we enjoy daily.
May we never take for granted the liberties we have been given.
May we remain humble and conscious of the blessings we enjoy
Because of the sacrifices made by countless men and women.
We thank you for the abundance we enjoy.
May we be sensitive to those around us who are in need,
And may our hearts be quick to help
When we have the means to do so.
We pray for our leaders.
For those placed in authority over us.
Father, we ask that you guide every decision they make.
May they lead us with wisdom, humility, and grace.
Father, bless our Nation with Your peace.
May Your love flow through each one of us,
And may we never forget to give You thanks, always.
May you receive the glory, honor, and praise.
In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen*

A MESSAGE FROM OUR INTERIM MINISTER

Jesus was teaching a crowd, and some men were trying to bring a paralyzed man to get healed by Jesus. They couldn't get the paralyzed man in because of the crowd. They went up to the rooftop and lowered him down through a hole. Jesus, one-on-one with the man, healed him.
(Luke 5:17-26)

A rich man, Zacchaeus, was the chief tax collector; he heard Jesus was in town. Zacchaeus was trying to see Jesus but was unable because of the crowds. So, he went ahead of the crowd and climbed into a sycamore tree to see Jesus. As Jesus, with the multitude of people in tow, passed by, Jesus saw Zacchaeus in the tree and told him to come down. One-on-one with Zacchaeus, Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house." (Luke 19:1-10)

Early in the morning, Jesus was at the temple, and people were coming to Him, and He sat down to teach. As Jesus was teaching, the scribes and Pharisees brought this woman to the feet of Jesus. She had been caught in the act of adultery. The Pharisees tell Jesus the Law commands us to stone such a woman. Jesus tells the crowd, "He who is without sin, let him cast the first stone." The crowds left, one by one. Jesus, one-on-one with this woman, said to her, "Where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you. Neither do I, go and sin no more." (John 8:1-11)

Jesus was by the sea of Galilee, and the crowds were pressing in on Him. Jesus got into Peter's boat and asked him to row out a way so He could speak to the crowds. After Jesus finished teaching, He told Peter to put out into the deep water and let out his nets. Peter let out his nets and caught the biggest catch of fish ever. Something happened in that boat. Peter, face to face, one-on-one with Jesus, falls to his knees and declares to Jesus, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." (Luke 5:1-11)

Do you see the pattern? Jesus preached to the multitudes, but the one-on-one encounters with Jesus were transformative. It is great to be together on Sunday morning for our corporate worship. However, it is the small group situation that we read of the transformative events.

Small groups and Sunday School classes are so crucial to the spiritual health of the congregation and your spiritual health. I encourage you to get involved in a Sunday School class or a Bible study group.

Please get in touch with me if you would like to host a Bible study or lead one.
