DAYLIGHT SAVING

Daylight Saving Time is Sunday, March 12th, when clocks will "spring forward" one hour, and we lose an hour of sleep overnight. So set your clocks forward (1) an hour, so you are not late for church services.

CHILDREN'S SUMMER THEATER

Tyro Christian Church will host our 3rd annual Children's Summer Theatre program during July 2023. We will be producing the musical SINGIN' IN THE RAIN, JR, under the direction of Barb Blackert with the musical direction by Matt Carter, our Worship Minister.

Based on the classic Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film, this musical adaptation of Singing in the Rain, JR. will be performed on our stage on July 27th, 28th, and 29th, 2023, at 7:00 PM. The musical will be the shortened staged version, featuring a cast of 25 characters with a run time of about 60 minutes.

We want to invite your child (4th - 12th Grade) to participate! Last year we produced a beautiful production of The Music Man Jr.; the year before, it was The Sound of Music, Jr.

Our heartbeat for this ministry is to offer something unique for families: A FREE summer theater program that not only believes in doing everything with excellence but truly places God in the center of all things!

This is an excellent opportunity for kids who are looking for a place to use their God-given talents and abilities and to perform on a stage that honors God in all things! We are so grateful that God has allowed us to help create this dream come true for kids from Tyro and the surrounding area.

How do we accomplish making God the center of this production?

- An atmosphere of putting God center stage is created.
- Only wholesome, family-oriented musicals and plays will be chosen for this ministry.
- Your child will never be asked to participate in anything that would be inappropriate, whether that be in word or deed.
- We break for an "All Truth is God's Truth" Bible time every afternoon. This is where we talk about what God's Word says about not only Music and Drama but everyday things that are relevant to kids today.
- We spend time in prayer and encourage students to lead prayer and study.

What should I expect?

- Your child will be introduced to and learn how to sing classic Broadway music.
- Learn how to move and dance on stage from a skilled choreographer, and acquire basic acting skills that will help them build confidence on stage and for life.

What are the particulars?

- AUDITIONS will be held Thursday, March 30th, from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, and Saturday, April 1st from 9:00 AM – 10:00 AM, with callbacks from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM in the main auditorium.
- Rehearsals will occur throughout July M-F (July 4th off) 12:30-4:00 PM.
- Performances are July 27th, 28th, and 29th at 7:00 PM.

- Any 4th - 12th graders interested in participating in this production, please come to auditions prepared with the following memorized:
 - A 30 - 60 second monologue (one person speaking) cutting from a play or book
 - 16 bars or up to 60 seconds of a musical piece from either a Musical or Christian song/hymn.
- An Online Audition Registration Form and more information will be provided in the next few weeks. Stay Tuned!

You may drop them off at the check-in counter. Thank you for your contribution.

If a child brings an item to Church, ensure the child's name is on the item. This will help the workers in the room to know which article or bag belongs to which child. Please ask the ladies at the check-in desk for help if you need a sticker.

CHECK-IN WORKERS

Check-in workers – you are one of the first to greet our visitors that come. In order to help them get their children to the appropriate place, please be in the check-in area 15 minutes before the start of Service. We need to help get the children into the church service area and introduce them to an usher to help them get settled.

TORNADO DRILLS

During March, the Building Block area will have tornado drills. This is to help the workers to know what to do during a tornado, and your children will be safe in the designated safe room (located in the school area). Great job, teens – Lucy Robins, Jenna Wade, Jarrett & Kolton Hodges, and Lex Ward. We had several adults stay and help, including our photographers - Sharon Ward, Brandee Egan, and Melissa Robertson. Mike Foster was our baker. We had 16 twos through Kindergarten (1 baby) join us on this beautiful day. Thanks to Sadee & Sage Hodges, Nash & Noah Fitzsimmons, Anna, Aliza and Addison LaBatt, Caden Farmer, Cooper Daily, Ben & Eli Carter, Nia & Keirland Steele, Karolina & Viktor Wilkinson, and Jack & Jo Snelson for coming and baking cookies with us.

PARENTS AND FRIENDS OF TYRO TEENS!

Another month has passed, and now we're in the home stretch of the semester. By the time you read this, we will most likely have finished our Awkward Conversation series on prayer and will be starting our next series on the last words of Jesus as we gear up for Easter. As we've gone through this series on prayer, there have been a lot of incredibly powerful moments: we've let the kids put their prayers on the prayer wall (which will stay up for the semester). We've allowed them to write their sins down and then shred them to show that God forgets our sins when we confess them. We've examined how we can pray the truth of scripture over our lives. We will look at praying for our friends in the faith and then close out our series by looking at praying for those outside of the faith.

SUMMER CAMP

I know I say this every month, but they say that by the time you get sick of saying something, your target audience is only beginning to get what it is you're trying to get across, so I'm going to repeat it: Camp Cyokamo is going to be awesome. I am so excited for this summer, and the relationships with Christ that our deep dive will impact into "God is..." This summer will be epic. I pray that your student will consider going with us and letting Jesus work on their lives in a fun and safe environment!

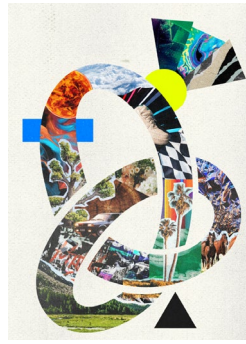

June 11-16 Sr. High Camp
June 18-23 Jr. High Camp

We'll release prices and other relevant information as we get closer to those dates!

WHAT'S NEXT

We will be looking at the last words of Jesus in March and early April. I hope that by looking at the words that Jesus spoke on the cross, we'll be able to help our students learn not only what those words were but their impact on our lives and how we can apply those lessons to our lives.

CIY: NEVERTHELESS

There is still time left for your student to sign up for CIY. As I write this, there are only six slots left for the trip, but we would love to have your student accompany us as we head to Cleveland, Tennessee, during the week of July 9th-15th!

This year's theme is Nevertheless, which is going to be an excellent theme for us to explore as a youth group as we dive into some of the things that Paul had to fight through and still say in Galatians 2:20; "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless, I live...."

This will be a great summer!

BRINGING IT HOME

Prayer is such an essential aspect of our faith. Here are some ways that you can bring this conversation home with your student:

- Ask them what they're praying for.
- Be honest about what you're praying for in your growth.
- Ask how you can pray for them.
- Take mental notes during conversations and pray over them.
- Follow up on those prayers and send text messages to them, letting them know you've been praying.

AYSSGLM

I declare March to be Appreciate Your Student's Small Group Leader Month! Your students have small group leaders who have dedicated their Wednesday nights to your students so they can walk alongside them and give them wisdom about God's word and how to apply it to their lives. These folks have not only dedicated their Wednesday nights, but they've shown up randomly by going to sporting events and had random events where they've taken your students to different places. These adults love your students, and they love you too. I ask that you join me in appreciating these hard-working and ever-loving adults!

NEED HELP?

Do you need help around the yard or house this spring and summer and would like to help a student earn money for camp or CIY?

Call Silas at the office, and we'll try to find a student who can help!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR INTERIM MINISTER

“Three times I besought the Lord about this, that it should leave me; but he said to me ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’ 2 Corinthians 12:8

This promise extends to every believer, but its context is one of severe difficulties, distresses, persecutions, and human weakness. Paul pours out his heart amid severe attacks on his character and ministry. He had given so much to the Corinthians, and some of them were turning on him with a bitter animosity. His enemies had called his integrity into question. They had questioned his loyalty and leadership abilities. They had doubted and denied his love for believers. To top it off, he was given a thorn in the flesh. This was probably the greatest single barrage of abuse that Paul ever received in his life and apparently leaders within the Church were fueling it.

The greatest pain he ever knew came from some of the people he loved the most. Their rejection, betrayal, criticism, false accusations, and even hatred cut deep into his heart. That makes Paul’s situation very practical to us, because the same pain that hit him can strike every believer.

Notice Paul doesn’t say, concerning this, “I went to my therapist, read a book, attended a seminar.” Paul took a route many feel is too simplistic. He entreated the Lord. Three times he appealed to God to remove the thorn and three times God said “No”. Paul was content with God’s answer, “no” because God said to him, “My grace is sufficient.” God answered Paul’s prayer by not granting his request, but by supplying sufficient grace for Paul to endure it. Like Paul we might ask God to remove some thorn of pain or suffering, only to discover that God wants it to remain. Yielding to His will at such time is the cornerstone of Christian living.

This same suffering that reveals our weaknesses reveal God’s strength. When we are least effective in our human strength and have only God’s power to sustain us, then we are suitable channels through which his power flows. Paul didn’t love abuse, but he loved the grace and power that God manifested in him.

What a contrast to our society. Many people think that sheltering believers from all difficulties is the highest expression of God’s grace. Most people are discontent because they wrongly equate satisfaction with positive circumstance and increased possessions. This is a result of our self-centered, godless society. Sin is defined how it affects man, not how it dishonors God. The focus has shifted from God’s glory to man’s benefit. In a nutshell it says “Jesus is your ticket to avoiding all of life’s pain and experiencing all of life’s pleasures.”

God has always used suffering to perfect and purify His people and to demonstrate the sufficiency of His grace. Christians today are consumed with the trials and troubles of life. Caught up with difficulties and sorrows and anguish; desperately looking for some great new secret, some higher spiritual level, some more effective relief than they think they have in Christ. There is no need for that. God’s grace is sufficient.

JOY GROUP LUNCH

Joy lunch will be Wednesday, March 8th, at noon in the Northeast Overflow Room. Please bring a dish and a friend. We will be back to our usual menu...potluck! Many thanks to everyone who helps clean up! (This is not an assigned job...volunteers are welcome!) Guests are always welcome. JOY Group is for everyone 55 and older.

VALENTINE’S BANQUET

Thank you to everyone for the love and support for our Valentine’s Banquet last month. What an excellent time to celebrate love and marriage. Our evening was full of delicious food, great entertainment, and a night full of laughter. Thank you to Darren Brake and his family for the smoked meats, Annette Chism and family, and Bev Metcalf and Linda Olson for the delicious desserts. Thank you to our teens who worked hard to keep up with restocking food, drinks, desserts, and childcare. A shout-out to Taylor Allen, Zander Adams, Heide Blackert, Raelynn Brungard, Keely Daily, Layne Denny, Andrea Fitzsimmons, Marayah Gulick, Audra Heady, Mattie McDaniel, Lucy Robins, Violet Robins, Bre Thompson. We look forward to planning next year’s sweet Valentine’s banquet.
